

The hospitality industry - what to expect

All Seasons Sanctuary Golf Resort operates within the hospitality industry, therefore many of the positions available are based on irregular shifts. That is, early mornings, evenings and weekends. There are only a few positions within the resort that have typical office hours of 9.00am – 5.00pm Monday to Friday, and even those positions require some weekend/evening availability from time to time.

Working hospitality hours has its advantages, just as working nine to five has its' too. Below are some of the advantages and disadvantages for applicants to consider.
